

Faculty Profile

William K. Cors, MD, MMM

Professional Experience

William K. Cors, MD, MMM, FACPE serves as Vice President Medical Staff Services for The Greeley Company, a physician run national healthcare consulting company. In addition, he practiced clinical neurology for fifteen (15) years and served as Chief Medical Officer at several northeastern hospitals for an additional thirteen (13) years. He has lectured extensively on physician-hospital relations, new medical staff models, strategic medical staff development planning, patient safety and the roles and responsibilities of hospital medical staffs, executive teams and boards.

Educational Background

He is a graduate of the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Massachusetts. Dr. Cors received his MD degree from UMDNJ: New Jersey Medical School in Newark, New Jersey. In addition, he holds a Masters of Medical Management degree from the Tulane University School of Public Health and Tropical Diseases in New Orleans, Louisiana. He is Board Certified in both Neurology and Medical Management. He also is a Fellow of the American College of Physician Executives.

Additional Information

Dr. Cors is a Clinical Associate Professor Neurology at UMDNJ: Robert Wood Johnson Medical School.

He currently serves as a member of the Board of the American College of Physician Executives.