

Alan S. Kaplan MD, MMM, CPE, FACPE

Alan S. Kaplan, MD, MMM, FACPE, FACHE currently serves as the VP & CMO for the Iowa Health System, which is a $2 billion, integrated health system operating in seven major markets throughout Iowa and western Illinois. Additionally, Dr. Kaplan serves as the President & CEO of Iowa Health Physicians comprised of 270 providers operating in 70 clinic locations. Dr. Kaplan has general accountability for physician integration, quality, and healthcare transformation across the system. Prior to his current role, Dr. Kaplan served as the VP, Chief Medical Officer & Operations for Edward Health Services Corporation in Naperville, IL for 14 years. During his tenure, Dr. Kaplan was responsible for building relationships with a medical staff of nearly 1,000 members, developing clinical services, managing hospital departments, leading information systems services, and pursuing CON approval for a new hospital. Dr. Kaplan is residency trained and board certified in emergency medicine and has 14 years of clinical practice experience. Dr. Kaplan received his medical degree from Rush Medical College in 1985. He earned a Master of Medical Management at Carnegie Mellon University in 2000. Dr. Kaplan currently serves as Vice President of the Board of Directors for the American College of Physician Executives.

Dr. Kaplan received his medical degree from Rush Medical College in 1985. After medical school Dr. Kaplan completed residency training in Emergency Medicine. While serving in his current position, Dr. Kaplan became active with the American College of Physician Executives and completed his Master of Medical Management at Carnegie Mellon University in 2000.

Dr. Kaplan is certified by the American Board of Emergency Medicine. Dr. Kaplan is the Secretary/Treasurer on the Board of Directors for the American College of Physician Executives.

Dr. Kaplan is the President of the American College of Physician Executives.