

Ronald Chod, MD, MBA

Dr. Chod brings more than 20 years of progressive clinical and academic leadership experience to Grant Cooper & Associates. Prior to entering the search profession, Ron served as Assistant Vice Chancellor for Clinical Affairs, Executive Director of the Faculty Practice Plan, and Associate Professor of Obstetrics & Gynecology at Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis.

Ron accepted his first leadership role as Vice President for Medical Affairs at BJC Healthcare in 1994. Prior to that, he practiced Obstetrics and Gynecology in the St. Louis community. His focus at Grant Cooper is on academic appointments, hospital and integrated delivery systems, and physician executives.

Ron is a graduate of The University of Texas at Austin and The University of Texas Southwestern Medical School at Dallas. He served his residency at Barnes-Jewish Hospital in St. Louis. In 2003, Ron earned his MBA degree from the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis.

Ron has served as an author and invited lecturer on a wide variety of academic and integrated delivery system business development topics including physician integration, physician-hospital joint ventures and healthcare entrepreneurship.